wnich he should be received *n France in order that the Queen mig' * fes forced to send reinforcements (Bircn's Mem&r^ i 353-^ Essex was net over-scrupulous in furthering h'S own schemes

THE IWASION iv CoRJiWML AP C, xxv 129

z$ik December NEWS OF SIR FRANCIS DRAKE SP Dsn, 2-5 .- Letter from the Ma\or of Ph mouth to Lord Borleigh cwted n^rJ FT Drake's last voyage, see p 94

zStk Decerrber SMUGGLING OF CORN A P C, xxv 1-7

OTHER BOOKS ALSO SET FORTH ANNO 1595

Vnder this heading are grouped some of the rrore triere^ting btct to~t appeared dunrg the year uJnch cannot be more accurately dated

CHURCHYARD'S * CHARITY * AND 'A PRAISE OF POETRY* STC, 5245 , me in A BoswelTs *Frondes Caducae*9 1817 Churchyard jeas now aged, about 75 , he continued to write until his death in 1604 Icle conirre-j in the margin of the stanza quoted * \\ ant of chantie nath made me loose "i\ pattent M\ pattent shows that *

HLNMS' * RECREATIONS ' STC, 13973, entered 4th Decenr'Der, 158" J R, a 481

* POLIMANTEIA.* STC, 5883 It was wntten by \\ Covell, ana perhaps dates from the first quarter of 1596 , m e in A B Grosart's *Ehza.- be&an Er'gland tn Gentle and Simple Ltfe> 1881 The book is apparently aispirea by the genuine anxietv felt because on 5th September, 1595, the Queen bad entered on her Grand Climacteric (* e, the rinth of the fatal astrological periods of se\ en years) It is an important revelation of the anxious thoughts of intelligent minds in this year of alarm See also PP 7*> 85> 86

* PLUTARCH'S LFVES* STC, 20067, me in The Temple Classics edited by H D Rouse